

Supplementary Figure 3. Scatterplots showing the correlation between left inferior frontal gyrus responses and changes in subjective affect during downregulation in each group. Brain image shows the location of significant correlation in the PFC (-42 40 16) of healthy controls, color bar represents r-values ( $p < 0.005$ ). Blue shaded area represents region of cortico-limbic coupling.