Supplementary figure 1

Supplementary figure 1
The power to detect various levels of effect sizes for a range of minor allele frequencies. A range of effect sizes for the difference in trait per allele are expressed as SD-scores and the corresponding power was calculated using Quanto (Version 1.2.4). This calculation was performed for allele frequencies from 5-45%. The calculation was based on the size (n~400) of the White population in this study.