

Figure S4. Image of epidermis at the beginning of Stage II in the wild type.

Pedicle length equaled 1.04 mm, the calculated age was 258 h. At this time GMCs (arrowhead) begin to differentiate into guard cells, pavement cells begin to elongate, and very few divisions occur parallel to proximodistal axis (arrow).