

Figure S4. Compositional distance tree (Euclidean distances) based on the nucleotide composition of a degen1-encoded data set that is restricted to co-Ser codons. Bootstrap percentages >50% are displayed and indicate the strength of the compositional signal at particular nodes. The sum of all branch lengths reflects the total amount of compositional heterogeneity in the data set.

