

Figure S5. Compositional distance tree (Euclidean distances) based on the amino acid composition of a 21-amino acid data set that is restricted to co-SER (S/Z) residues. Bootstrap percentages >50% are displayed and indicate the strength of the compositional signal at particular nodes. The sum of all branch lengths reflects the total amount of compositional heterogeneity in the data set.

