

Figure S2. aCGH data showing two cases (A and B) with a deletion affecting the short arm of chromosome 18 which was detected by exome2cnv but not by aCGH because it is present in a subpopulation of tumor cells. For comparison, a case (C) with a deletion affecting all tumor cells and detected by both methods is shown.

