

Figure S3. Voriconazole affects seed development. Arabidopsis plants were sprayed for 4 weeks with either 10 μ M Vor (upper silique) or, as a control, with water (lower silique) 5 times a week prior microscopic observation.