

Figure S6 Distribution pattern of the mean net primary productivity in the Indo-Pacific at UTM grids shifted into different orientations.

The grids were classified (equal interval) into 10 classes based on the index values recorded in each cell such that cells in red have the highest productivity, and cells in blue have the lowest productivity. (A) UTM shifted north/south, (B) UTM shifted east/west, (C) UTM shifted northeast/southwest.

