

Figure S1

Fig. S1. The presence of cell surface receptors in the shRNA transfected R37 and KP1 cells. Western blotting was performed to detect the presence of the cell surface receptors in R37 and KP1 cells stably transfected with TG2 shRNA, while the scrambled shRNA transfected cells were used as the control as described in Materials and Methods.