

SUPPLEMENTARY FIG. S1. Colony metrics obtained using Colonyze™ software analysis. The number of cells per colony, a metric of proliferation, for each fraction after magnetic separation (MS) processing is standardized to the buffy-coated marrow (BCM). Geometric means (diamonds) and 95% confidence intervals are presented along with data from each subject (lines).