Figure S4 Adjacency matrices of direct effects (left columns) and significance (right columns; effect size divided by standard error) comparing non-interacting (1d) and interacting (2d) models. Genes are labeled as in Figure 3 and only significant interactions appear in effects (left columns). Interaction scans reveal additional direct influences of gene knockdowns on all three phenotypes by increasing significance of the inferred effects.