Figure S 4: Heatmap plots showing the number of non-causal variants that were falsely identified as causal in each of the 200 replicates. Numbers on the right side of each plot are false positive rates averaged across replicates for different methods.