

Figure S1: Map showing the distribution of occurrences used in the modelling process. Occurrence records that could not be assigned with certainty to one or the other clade are shown as “others” and were used to model the species but not the clades’ potential range.

