

Figure S1 The percentage of cells with an insertion was measured during prolonged growth in liquid culture. After 74 generations 13.4% of the cells expressing the transposase contained an insertion (Pink). Cells in a control culture did not express the transposase (Blue).