

SUPPLEMENTARY FIG. S3. Typical morphology of the degenerated follicles isolated by the (A) enzymatic and (B) mechanical methods after culturing using the MD method from day 0 to 6: the theca and granulosa cells diffused away and attached on the dish, resulting in exposed and eventually degenerated oocytes. MD, microliter drop.