

SUPPLEMENTARY FIG. S2. Reactivity to spectrin is detected in recipient mice regardless of the fixation method used. Consecutive muscle tissue sections of NOD/Rag1^{null}mdx5^{cv} mice never injected with human cells were fixed with methanol or PFA, or remained unfixed. The same area of spectrin-reactive myofibers was detected with any of the fixation methods used, with methanol-fixed and unfixed tissue showing the strongest reactivity.