Web Appendix 2: Sample Interview Topic Guide

How do you currently perceive/produce/use/implement structured data in patient records?

How do you currently perceive/produce/use/implement coded data in patient records?

How much variation is observed in structuring and coding? What are the implications for data quality?

What determines the balance between free text and coding?

What are the perceived issues surrounding privacy and anonymisation of coded data?

What is your perception of how structured data is used, both by yourself, and by others?

What are your perceptions of the (future) use of structured and coded data?