

Study population

Supplemental Figure 1 Representation of the visits of the subject group infants included in the study. Of the 10 children examined at the age of 6 months, only four infants were seen at all three time points, while the remaining six infants were seen at birth and at 6 months of age.