

Table S1. Pictures used to facilitate understanding of left and right for sport-specific tasks.

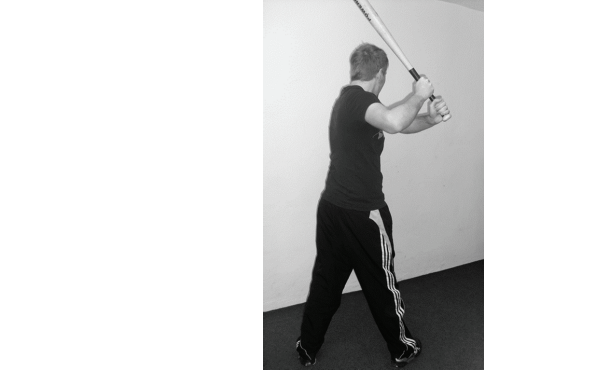

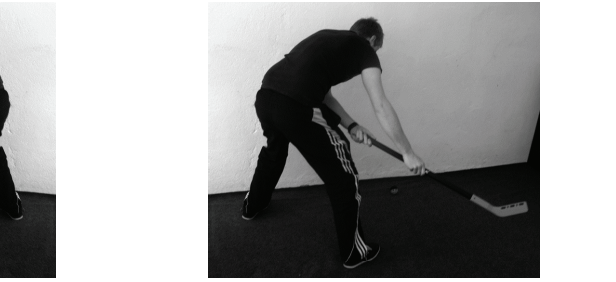

Sport	Left	Right
baseball	 A black and white photograph of a person in a dark t-shirt and dark pants with a white stripe down the side, holding a baseball bat in a left-handed batting stance. The person is facing right, with the bat held over their right shoulder.	 A black and white photograph of a person in a dark t-shirt and dark pants with a white stripe down the side, holding a baseball bat in a right-handed batting stance. The person is facing right, with the bat held over their left shoulder.
boxing	 A black and white photograph of a person in a dark t-shirt and dark pants with a white stripe down the side, wearing boxing gloves. They are in a left-handed boxing stance, facing right with their left hand forward.	 A black and white photograph of a person in a dark t-shirt and dark pants with a white stripe down the side, wearing boxing gloves. They are in a right-handed boxing stance, facing right with their right hand forward.
fencing	 A black and white photograph of a person in a white fencing uniform, seen from behind. They are in a left-handed fencing stance, facing right with their left hand forward.	 A black and white photograph of a person in a white fencing uniform, seen from behind. They are in a right-handed fencing stance, facing right with their right hand forward.
ice hockey	 A black and white photograph of a person in a dark t-shirt and dark pants with a white stripe down the side, holding an ice hockey stick. They are in a left-handed stance, leaning forward with the stick on the floor.	 A black and white photograph of a person in a dark t-shirt and dark pants with a white stripe down the side, holding an ice hockey stick. They are in a right-handed stance, leaning forward with the stick on the floor.

Table S1. (continued)

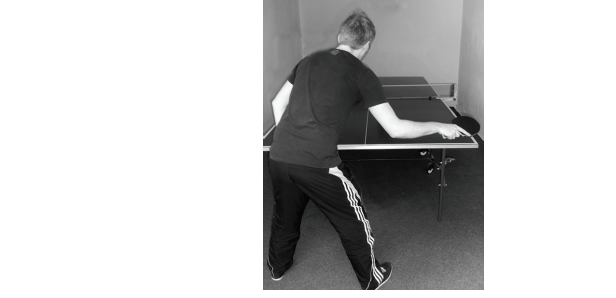

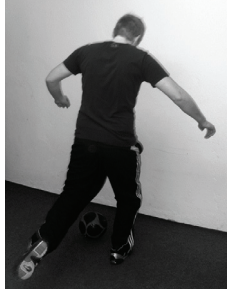

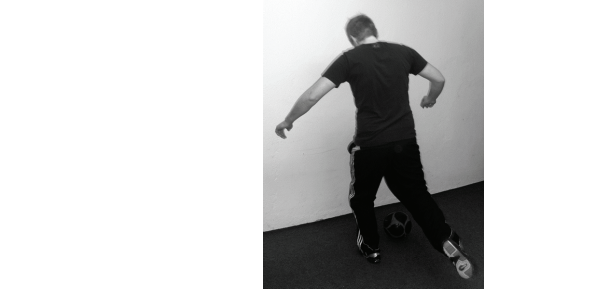

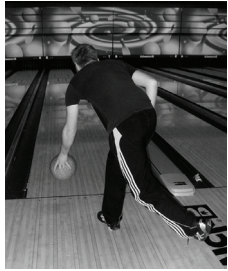

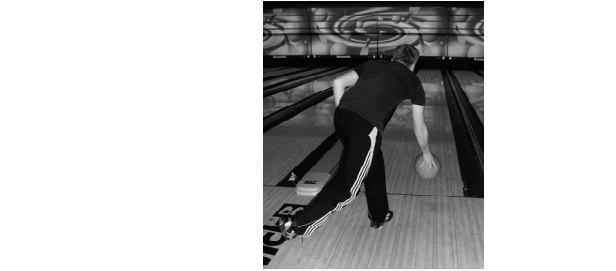

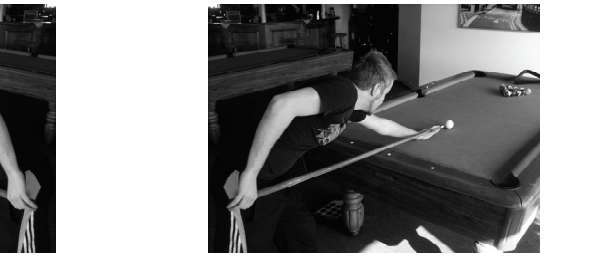

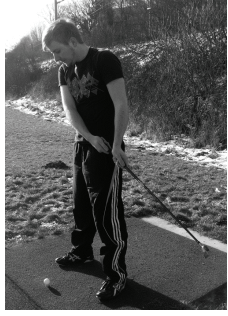

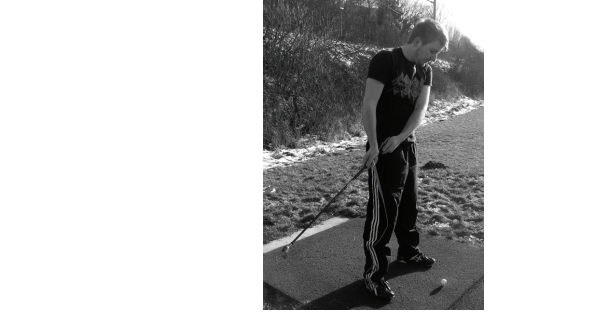

Sport	Left	Right
racket sports (e.g. table tennis, tennis, badminton)
soccer
ninepin, tenpin bowling
billiards
golf

Table S1. (continued)

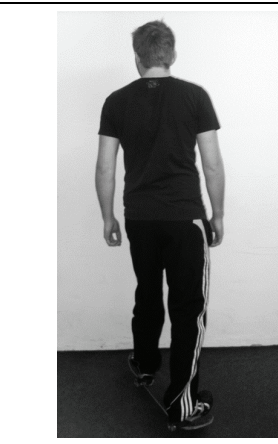

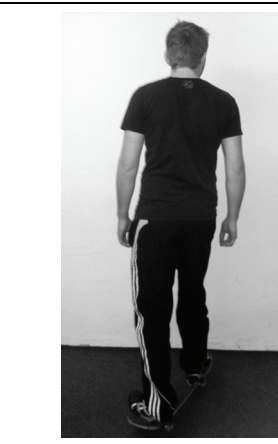

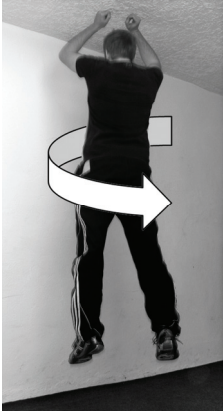

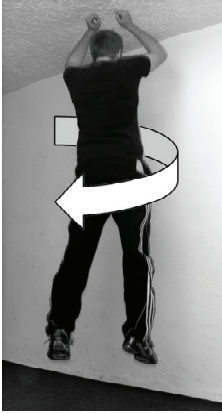

Sport	Left	Right
target shooting
archery
skateboarding, snowboarding
long jump

Table S1. (continued)

Sport	Left	Right
high jump (Note: Approaching from the left means jumping off with the right foot and vice versa. Participants were informed about this relationship.)
e.g. figure skating (rotation) e.g. dart, team-handball (throwing)	