

Supplementary figure 2.

Supplementary figure 2. Partial electropherogram showing the truncating mutation (2544delC) and the wild-type sequence at similar detection levels in the tumour from the Portuguese proband. This results allows exclusion of LOH as a second-hit, due to maintained heterozygosity at the mutation site.