

Figure S2 Melanization measured in the cross 3D1 x 3D7 over the three different environments. Each environment is represented by the three colony ages. The rug just above the grey values corresponds to the intensity of grey shading. Melanization increases as time progresses, indicated with lower mean values for older colonies.