

Figure S9. Schematic representation of frame of reference used to define the position and orientation restraints. To reduce the degrees of freedom, P1, P2, P3 and L1, L2, L3 were employed to represent the coordinates of the protein and the ligand, respectively, as described in Method S1.

