

SUPPLEMENTARY FIG. S2. Representative microCT images of the entire time course of the study. Micrographs indicate that the most significant healing processes occurred between 2 and 3 months of treatment. After 1 month, little difference was observed in any of the samples. Scale bar= 5 mm.