

Histogram showing the distribution of pairwise kinship coefficients (smaller picture is zoomed into the part of the graph in which the coefficient is greater than 0.03125, $n=1593$). The peak over 0.25 represents siblings. The peak close to 0.25 second degree relatives and at 0.0625 third degree relatives.