Figure S8. Cross-sectional diagram of the basket method Yellow arrows represent roots elongating from the basket mesh. RDR50 and RDR70 were calculated as the numbers of roots that penetrated below the red line (root angle >50°) and orange line (root angle >70°), respectively, divided by the total number of roots that penetrated the whole mesh.