

Figure S1. The reads dilution effect. When multiple alleles of Antigen A are archived in the database instead of only one, those alleles compete for reads, leading to the highest amount of reads mapped to an Antigen A allele decreases from 5 to 2, fewer than the 3 mapped to Antigen B.