

S3 Figure. Results from Principle Component Analysis of the rate constants and its effect on the glioblastoma growth in the LN229 glioblastoma cell line. PC1 is the first principle component and PC2 is the second principle component. Both components contributed about 10% each to the overall correlation.