

Supplemental Fig.1. Quantification of phyloquinone and of demethylphyloquinone in the leaves of wild-type and lto1 knockout plants. Same letter annotations above the error bars indicate that the corresponding values are not significantly different as determined by Fisher's least significant difference test from ANOVA ($p > 0.1$). Data are the means of 4 replicates \pm SE.