

Relationship between normalized TE expression (mapped reads per kb consensus sequence) and population frequency in D. simulans. Results are shown for TE families with at least one non-overlapping insertions at a major chromosome arm (111).