

S2 Fig

The sensitivity of the CES-D and the PHQ-9 to differentiate subjects with depression and those without depression

The figure shows the ROC curve for sensitivity analysis. The CES-D, PHQ-9 and SF-12 v2 MCS were sensitive enough to detect difference between the subject, with an AUC >0.7 for all instruments.