

Supplemental Figure 4. High fat feeding does not affect LD and mitochondria interactions. Electron microscopy micrographs of normal and high-fat fed mouse livers were examined. All the mitochondria and LDs were quantified in 10 cells are a magnification of 15000-25000x. The percent of LDs interacting with mitochondria (left panel) and the percent of mitochondria interacting with LD (right panel) was calculated.