

Supplementary Digital Content 4

Figure. Delphi survey: level of diagnostic certainty achieved by individual assessment types and combinations of these assessments when assessing whether a pain is 'definite', 'probable' or 'possible' neuropathic pain

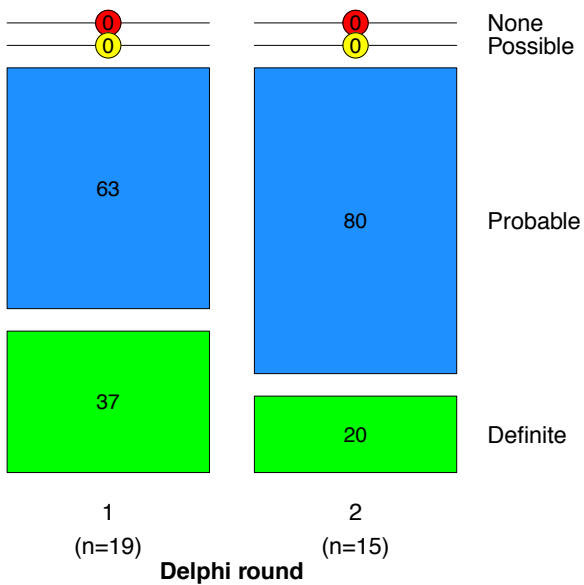

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
 additional investigations, clinical signs, symptoms,
 and body chart and history

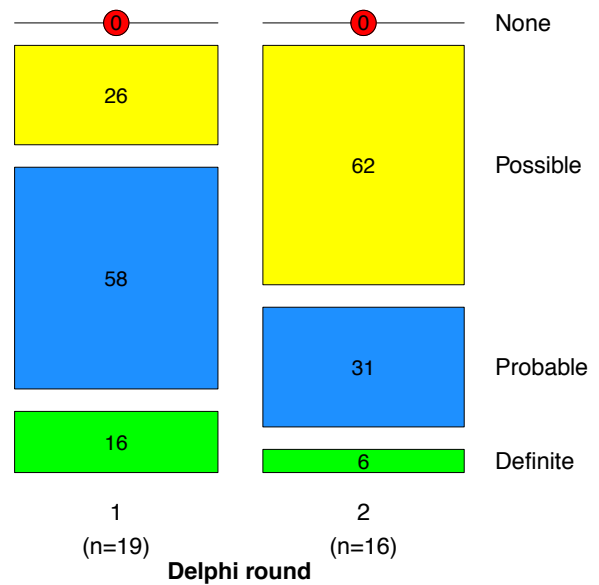

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
 additional investigations, clinical signs, and symptoms

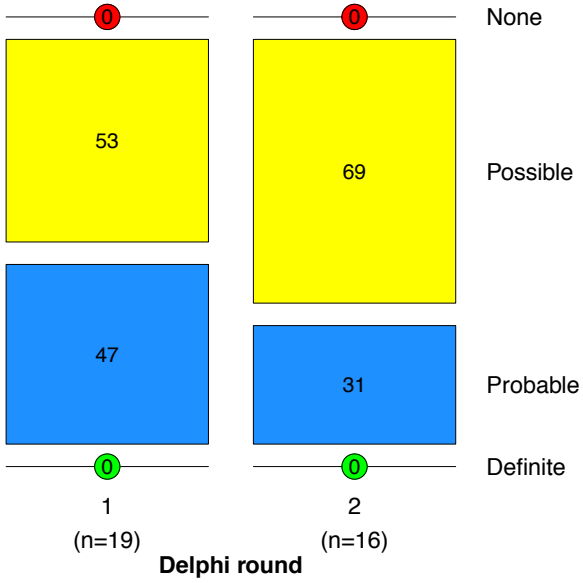

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
 clinical signs, symptoms, body chart and history

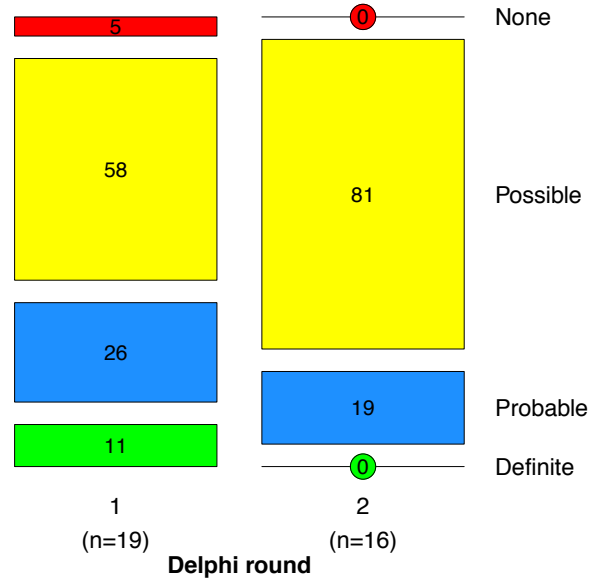

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
 clinical signs and symptoms

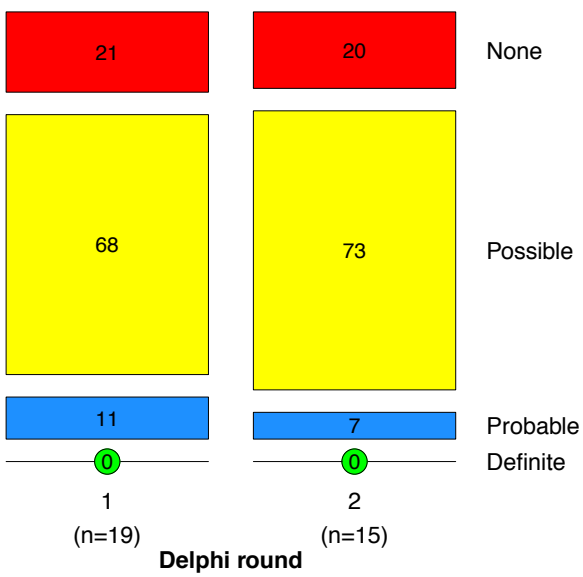

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
additional investigations and clinical signs

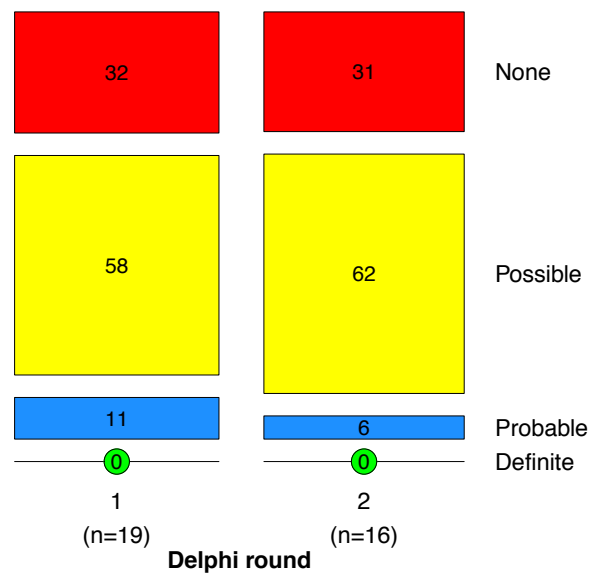

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
symptoms, body chart and history

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
clinical signs only

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
symptoms only

Rate the level of diagnostic certainty of:
additional investigations only

