

Supplementary figure 1. Table of AGW-related diagnostic and procedural codes used by physician offices.

Code	Description
ICD-10
A630
OHIP
Diagnostic Codes
099	venereal disease, TD, condyloma, Duchennes, herpes genitalis, chlamydia,
079	condyloma accuminata, rabies, viral disease, other viral disease, viral illness
629	Warts, venereal, other disorders, Other diseases or disorders not specified elsewhere-genital organs female, other disorders of female genital organs, condylomata, leukorrhea
078	verruca(plantar wart), warts, all types, other viral disease, warts
K028	STD, BBD mgmt
Procedural Codes
Z117	Chemical Rx wart (plantar, genital)
Z549	Digestive system surgical procedures: Rectum: Destruction: Fulguration of condylomata (local anaesthesia)
Z701	Male genital surgical procedures: Excision: condylomata (local anaesthesia)
Z733	Female genital surgical procedures: Excision: condylomata (chem or cryo surgery)
Z736	Female genital surgical procedures: Excision: condylomata (local anaesthesia, surgical excision OR electrodesiccation OR CO2 laser)
Z758	Digestive system surgical procedures: Rectum: Destruction: Fulguration of condylomata (general anaesthesia)
Z767	Male genital surgical procedures: Excision: condylomata (general anaesthesia)
Z769	Female genital surgical procedures: Excision: condylomata (general anaesthesia, surgical excision OR electrodesiccation OR CO2 laser)

Supplementary figure 2a. Sensitivity analysis of billing code for physician-administered, in-office chemical or cryotherapy, Z117. Age distribution of HSU with code Z117 for fiscal year 2004.

Supplementary figure 2b. Age-specific trends in code Z117 in females.

Supplementary figure 2c. Age-specific trends in billing code combinations that include Z117, for 21-23 year old females.

