

Figure S4

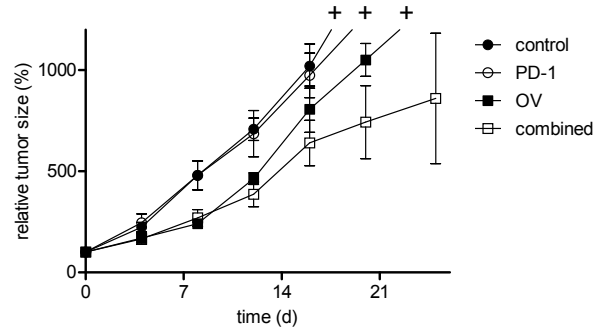

Fig. S4 Growth of the primary tumor following virotherapy and/or PD-1 inhibition. Mice bearing subcutaneous CMT64 tumor and lung colonies were treated as described in Figure 5, when tumor-volume reached about 100 μ l (n=5 animals per group). Untreated mice served as control. The size of the primary tumor was monitored. Groups marked with '+' were terminated due to the tumor burden.