

Additional File 3, Peripheral Lung Lesion Definition

For the purposes of NAVIGATE data collection, a peripheral lung lesion is defined as a lesion that is located in the outer third of the lung and difficult to reach by traditional bronchoscopy, in accordance with the following visual aid:

