

Supplemental Material

Video S1

This temporal progression video demonstrates time lapse ECG changes during dialysis, together with the automated, T wave right slope and calculate ECG feature and blood potassium values. The video demonstrates how the signal processed ECG tracks with potassium changes during a dialysis run, compressing changes that occur in 216 minutes into one and a half minutes.