

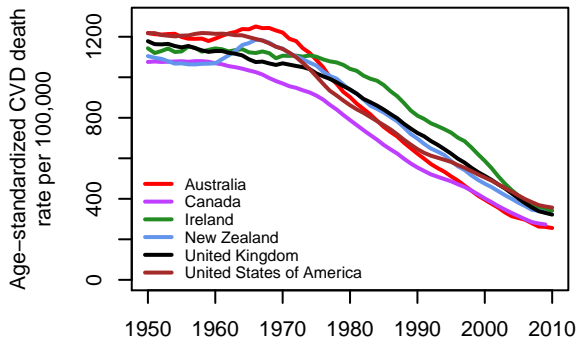

Figure S1: Trends in death rates from cardiovascular diseases for adults aged 30 years and older. Within each age group, death rates are age-standardized to the WHO standard population. Trends are smoothed using a 5-year moving average. See Figure 3 for separate results for people aged 30-69 years and 70 years and older.

Men

Women

