

Case 9. A 70-year old female with degenerative thoracolumbar kyphoscoliosis underwent a posterior vertebral column resection at the apex of the curve and spinal instrumentation/fusion from T9 to pelvis with prophylactic vertebroplasty. Her sagittal/coronal balance was nicely corrected after surgery. Radiographical and clinical outcomes were excellent in 2 years postoperative.