Hello,

First of all, thanks for your help and comments for our project. Jenny and I submitted a manuscript to Journal, Circ.Res and we had liked to gratefully acknowledged you in our manuscript.

Now the manuscript is considered to be accepted once revisions are submitted by this Monday, 31th. With this, the journal requested to all acknowledged people to send an email for the permission (Please see below: the request by the editor). Thus, could you please send an email to below address ASAP? It's an open format. And for your interest, the manuscript and decision letter are attached.

Again, thanks for your help and it will be grateful if you can inform me (us) once sending an email to the Journal.

By editor: - All persons acknowledged by name in the manuscript must send an email to circulation.research@circresearch.com citing their permission to be acknowledged.
