

To create the delivery weights, the standard survey sample weights provided in the SPA dataset were multiplied by the number of deliveries in the previous 12 months; this was then divided by the sum of all deliveries in the previous 12 months in that country.