

The general map of the evacuation room built for mock evacuation experiments. In total, 5 exits were built, but for each trial run only a subset of them were available to the participants. The location of the tripod legs used for mounting the camera has also been shown in green line inside the obstacle area.