

Supplementary Figure 2. Absolute number of responses and response rates in evaluable patients over time. Each column represents the number (A) or proportion (B) of responses at corresponding time points of the study follow-up period.