Figure S1. Surveillance and simulation demographics. (A) Simulation demographics approximate the age distribution observed in surveillance data. Compared with simulation, surveillance data is missing a portion of 15-30 year old adults who may not have been at home during the MSAT rounds. (B) Distribution of cluster populations used in spatial simulation framework. See Figure 1 for cluster locations.