

Supplementary Fig. 1 clinical features of the patients with Progressive pseudorheumatoid chondrodysplasia
a) Hand of Patient 1 at age 27. The interphalangeal joints were swollen. b)-d) Patient 2 at age 17. Typical posture of PPD patient. Multiple joint contracture, short trunk, thoracic kyphosis, and swollen interphalangeal joints are noted.