Fig. S 7 Distribution of orientation-dependent contextual modulation effects for females and males. Boxplots show the difference between the contrast detection thresholds for parallel and orthogonal contexts for simultaneous presentation, separately for females and males.