

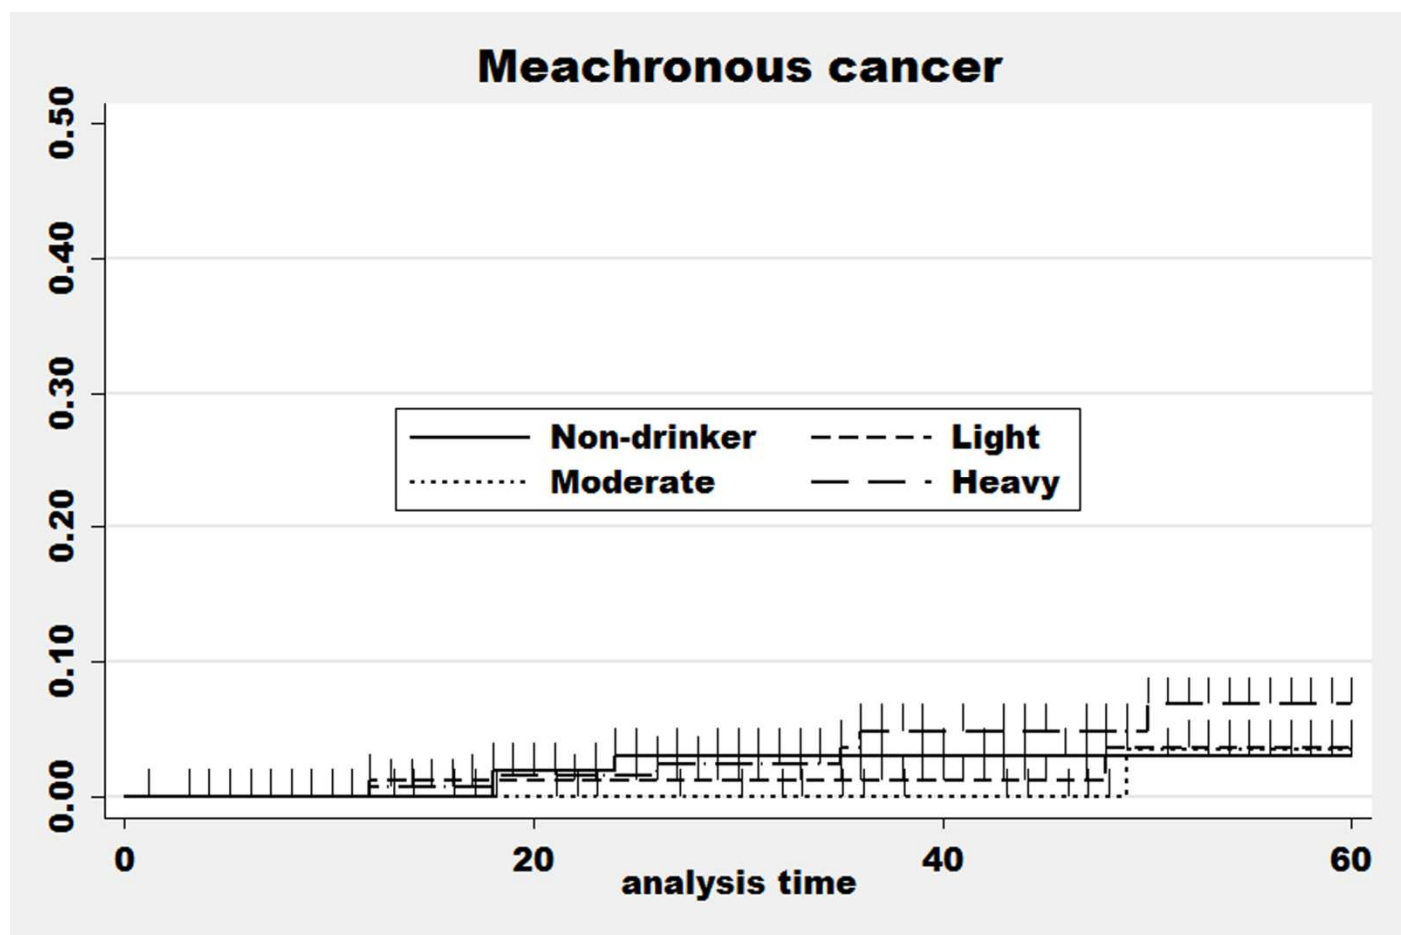

Figure. S1. Kaplan-Meier survival curve of onset of metachronous cancer

A suggestive association with alcohol consumption was observed in crude analysis with an unadjusted HR of 2.98 (0.82-10.70) for heavy drinkers, but this was not statistically significant in multivariable analysis with an HR of 2.54 (0.42-15.30).