

Figure S4. 3D facial morphs and color maps of principal component phenotypes.

Visual depiction of the extreme ends of PC1-PC10 scores with percent of phenotypic variance explained. The heatmaps depict the regions of the face that vary the most between the min and max morphs.