INTRODUCTION

Thank you for taking the time to talk with me today. We're going to be here for about an hour, so if you need to take a break, just let me know. There are no right or wrong answers, the questions are about your experiences and you're the only one who can know what that's like.

I just want to remind you that all of the information you give me is confidential. You do not have to answer any question that you do not want to answer, but I do ask that you be as honest as you can when you choose to answer.

We're going to start with me asking you questions. Then, we'll switch to you answering questions by yourself as the computer reads them to you. If you have any questions or would prefer to have me read the questions instead, just let me know.

Do you have any questions before we get started?

[Interviewer note: ACASI section starts. Please read the following instructions and give computer and headphones to R.]

We're making good progress. I really appreciate how much effort you're putting into answering the questions. For the next part of the interview, I'm going to turn the computer over to you so that you can answer the questions yourself. We have these headphones so that you can listen to the questions in privacy, and you can also read the questions on the computer screen.

You will use the pen to enter the answers yourself. The first few questions are for practice, just to get you familiar with how this will work. If you are unsure about how to answer any of the questions, I'll be right here so just let me know.

PRACTICE SECTION

Let's begin the practice questions. Sometimes you will hear a natural human voice, and sometimes you will hear a computerized voice.

The following examples will give you an idea of the types of questions you will see during the interview, and will give you a chance to ask your interviewer any questions before you get started.

PRA1. Some of the questions will ask you to answer either YES or NO. For example, "Are you wearing a green shirt today?"

- 1 Yes
- 0 No
- 9 Refuse to Answer

PRA2. Some of the questions will ask you to pick one answer from a list, such as, How much do you agree with this statement? Blue is my favorite color. (Choose one) (Choose one)
