

Figure S6

Supplementary Figure S6 Domestic ducks reside in free-range conditions on farms in Bangladesh. As shown, they are allowed to freely move about the waterways and wetlands to scavenge for food. It is here that they have interactions with wild birds and may possible come into contact with wild bird AIVs.