

S1 Table. Veterinary care for the seabird species admitted alive to the Tafira Wildlife Rehabilitation Center (2003-2013).

Cause of admission	Care protocol
Crude oil	Cleaning of mouth, nares and cloaca with physiological saline Eye cleaning (when necessary) Hydrocarbon removal using a rag or towel; cleaning with hot water and degreaser soap; rinsing and drying Oral fluid therapy Appropriate and palatable nutrition
Fishing gear	Fish hook surgical removal Wound cleaning and disinfection Anti-inflammatory therapy Antibiotic therapy Oral fluid therapy Appropriate and palatable nutrition
Light pollution (fallout)	Oral fluid therapy (when necessary)
Metabolic/nutritional disorder	Oral fluid therapy Appropriate and palatable nutrition (if necessary, tube feeding)
Orphaned young	Appropriate and palatable nutrition
Other causes	Drying (when found in water ponds) Glue removal using petroleum; cleaning with hot water and degreaser soap; rinsing and drying Oral fluid therapy Appropriate and palatable nutrition (if necessary, tube feeding)
Other traumas	Surgical removal (gun pellets) Wound cleaning and disinfection Anti-inflammatory therapy Antibiotic therapy Oral fluid therapy Appropriate and palatable nutrition (if necessary, tube feeding)
Poisoning/intoxication	Oral fluid therapy Appropriate and palatable nutrition (if necessary, tube feeding)
Unknown/undetermined	Oral fluid therapy Appropriate and palatable nutrition (if necessary, tube feeding) Anti-inflammatory therapy (when necessary) Antibiotic therapy (when necessary)